

Wellness Policy

Introduction

Venom Championship Wrestling is committed to ensuring that all performers, crew and guests always remain safe.

The wellness policy applies to all performers including wrestlers, managers, referees, commentators, referees, ring announcers and anyone involved in an event operated by Venom Championship Wrestling.

Wellness Policy

- Performers must not be under the influence of any illegal substance or illegal performance enhancement substance.
- Performers must make us aware of any illness or situation which could affect their participation in the event.
- All performers participate at their own risk and agree that Venom Championship Wrestling will not be liable for any accidents, injuries or losses which may also impact future bookings.
- It is the responsibility of performers to ensure they feel able to participate in the event.
- Any performers or crew who fail to adhere to these standards and policies may be removed from the event.

The terms and conditions listed in this policy are non-exhaustive and can be updated any time. By participating on our events, performers agree to adhere to this policy.
